Is your child studying English in school? Are they studying grammar and vocabulary, but not having a chance to practice speaking? We are offering a one week stay in the Jizera Mountains. It will be a camp for children with huskies, and a program developed by native American English speaker Rodney Lovette and his wife, musher and breeder, Jana Lovette Henychova. They have combined experience in organizing various outdoor activities through their husky school. All information is available on www.huskies.cz
